

[Category. Curbside Rounds: State-of-the-Art in Palliative Care]

Palliative Care Clinicians Caring for Patients Before and After Continuous Flow-Left Ventricular Assist Device

Sara E. Wordingham, MD¹

Colleen K. McIlvennan, DNP, ANP²

Timothy J. Fendler, MD³

Amy L. Behnken, APRN, CNP⁴

Shannon M. Dunlay, MD, MS⁴

James N. Kirkpatrick, MD⁵

Keith M. Swetz, MD, MA^{6,7}

Author affiliations: ¹Mayo Clinic, Phoenix, AZ, ²University of Colorado, Aurora, Colorado, ³Midamerica Heart Institute, Kansas City, MO, ⁴Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN, ⁵University of Washington, Seattle, WA, ⁶University of Alabama-Birmingham and ⁷Birmingham VA Medical Center, Birmingham, AL

Corresponding author: Keith M. Swetz MD, MA, UAB Center for Palliative & Supportive Care, 1720 2nd Avenue South, BDB 650, Birmingham, AL 35294-0012. Email: kswetz@uabmc.edu, Phone: 205-975-8197, Fax 205-975-8173

Text word count: 3952

Abstract: pending review regarding format

Running title: Curbside Consult for Palliative Care and CF-LVADs

Keywords: mechanical circulatory support; ventricular assist device; end-of-life; palliative care; medical ethics, advance care planning

Download English Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/en/article/8606133>

Download Persian Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/article/8606133>

Daneshyari.com