This is a PDF file of an unedited manuscript that has been accepted for publication. As a service to our customers we are providing this early version of the manuscript. The manuscript will undergo copyediting, typesetting, and review of the resulting proof before it is published in its final form. Please note that during the production process errors may be discovered which could affect the content, and all legal disclaimers that apply to the journal pertain.

Constructs of emotion, perception, situation and behaviour constitute an experience
The situational buying context shapes the shopping experience
The essence of experience is its fluid, highly individualistic nature
Trust is more important than risk in online fashion shopping experiences
