Faheem Zafar is a PhD student in Computer Science Department, CIIT Islamabad. He has over 10 years of software development experience. He did his MS from CIIT Islamabad. His areas of research are security & privacy issues cloud computing, secure provenance and performance tuning.

Abid Khan is working as an assistant professor at Computer science department in CIIT, Islamabad. He was a postdoc fellow at Politecnico de Torino, Italy from 2009-2011. He did his PhD from Harbin Institute of technology, Harbin, P.R. China. His research interest includes security & privacy issues cloud computing, secure provenance, cryptography and Algorithms.

Saif U. R. Malik received a PhD degree from School of Electrical and Computer Engineering at North Dakota State University, USA. His research interests include formal verification, modeling, cyber physical systems, and large scale computing systems.

Mansoor Ahmed is working as an assistant professor in in Computer Science Department, CIIT Islamabad. He did his PhD from Vienna Institute of technology. From 2010-2011 he was a postdoc fellow at Indiana University. His research interest includes semantic web, information security and privacy.

Majid Iqbal Khan received his undergraduate degree with majors in Mathematics and Physics (2001) and Master degrees in Software Engineering (2004). He obtained a PhD in Wireless Sensor Networks from University of Vienna, Austria in 2009. He joined COMSATS Institute of Information Technology in 2009, where he is currently an Assistant Professor. His research interest includes wireless sensor networks, MANETS and Internet of things.

Nadeem Javed completed his Ph.D. from the University of Paris-Est, France in 2010 with the thesis entitled, "Analysis and Design of Routing Link Metrics for Quality Routing in Wireless Multi-hop Networks". Previously, he has completed Masters in Electronics from Quid-I-Azam University, Islamabad in 1999. Before going to France, he has been teaching for more than eight years in different Universities of Pakistan; like, International Islamic University, COMSTAS Institute of IT, Hamdard University, etc. His research interests include, Wireless Ad-hoc, Sensor, Vehicular and Body Area Networks.

Masoom Alam is working as an associate professor in in Computer Science Department, CIIT Islamabad. He graduated from University of Innsbruck Austria, with a PhD in computer science in 2007. His research interests include network security and forensics.
