

26th Annual American Society of Echocardiography Scientific Sessions
Highlights, June 12–16, 2015
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

ASE 2015–2016 Board of Directors and Society leaders gathered for their annual meeting in Boston.

2015 ASE Scientific Sessions program chair Rebecca Hahn, MD, FASE (right) receiving her commemorative plaque from 2014–2015 ASE President, Neil J. Weissman, MD, FASE.

Dr. Patrick O'Gara, Director of Clinical Cardiology, Brigham and Women's Hospital, delivered the 2015 Edler Lecture titled "Innovation in CV Medicine: Whose Responsibility Is It?"

The five editors of ASE's new text book Comprehensive Echocardiography were on hand Sunday morning to sign copies of the book for participants. The editors seated at the table are (top to bottom): Itzhak Kronzon, MD, FASE; Victor Mor-Avi, PhD, FASE; Bijoy K. Khandheria, MD, FASE; Roberto Lang, MD, FASE; Steven A. Goldstein, MD, FASE.

Volume 28 Number 9

Roberto Canessa, MD, FASE, pediatric cardiologist from Montevideo, Uruguay, presented a talk titled "The Triumph of Human Spirit Over Adversity. Resilience" about his heroic survival and rescue in the well documented 1972 Andes plane crash. Dr. Canessa also received a 2015 Honorary FASE.

Journal of the American Society of Echocardiography 27A

Download English Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/en/article/5612250>

Download Persian Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/article/5612250>

Daneshyari.com