

Author's Accepted Manuscript

What would you do?: Challenging cases for an expert panel of shoulder surgeons

William H. Seitz, Reuben Gobezie, John Sperling, Anthony A. Romeo, Lynn Crosby

PII: S1045-4527(16)30050-5
DOI: <http://dx.doi.org/10.1053/j.sart.2016.08.008>
Reference: YSART50716

To appear in: Seminars in Arthroplasty

Cite this article as: William H. Seitz, Reuben Gobezie, John Sperling, Anthony A. Romeo and Lynn Crosby, What would you do?: Challenging cases for an expert panel of shoulder surgeons, Seminars in Arthroplasty, <http://dx.doi.org/10.1053/j.sart.2016.08.008>

This is a PDF file of an unedited manuscript that has been accepted for publication. As a service to our customers we are providing this early version of the manuscript. The manuscript will undergo copyediting, typesetting, and review of the resulting galley proof before it is published in its final citable form. Please note that during the production process errors may be discovered which could affect the content, and all legal disclaimers that apply to the journal pertain.

What would you do?: Challenging Cases for An Expert Panel of Shoulder Surgeons

Moderator: William H. Seitz, Jr, MD
Cleveland Orthopaedic and Rheumatologic Institute at Lutheran Hospital
1730 W25th St, Cleveland, OH 44113

Panelists: Reuben Gobezie, MD
Cleveland Shoulder Institute, UH Ahuja Medical Center
3999 Richmond Road, Ste 200, Beachwood, OH 44122

John Sperling, MD
Mayo Clinic, Orthopaedic Surgery
200 1st Street SW, Rochester, MN 55905

Anthony A. Romeo, MD
Midwest Orthopaedics at Rush, Orthopaedic Surgery
1611 West Harrison Street, Chicago, IL 60612

Lynn Crosby, MD
Augusta University, Orthopaedic Surgery
1120 15th Street, Bldg. BA3300, Augusta, GA 30912

Introduction

In this session, we will present some challenging questions to our panel of experts to get their insights as to how they would deal with the variety of difficult cases.

Download English Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/en/article/5712447>

Download Persian Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/article/5712447>

Daneshyari.com