Academic

CALIFORNIA, Central Valley: Academic Chair sought for newly accredited Emergency Medicine Residency at Kaweah Delta Healthcare District in affiliation with University of California Irvine. This is a rare opportunity to build a legacy in emergency medicine and shape a new academic program while working in a trauma receiving facility with diverse pathology and an annual ED volume of 80,000+. The 3-year program will welcome its first residents July 1, 2013. The ED has a bright, experienced and academically productive faculty with passion and expertise equal to the task ahead. The successful candidate will have: exceptional administrative, motivational, and organizational skills; and a national reputation as a leader in academic medicine in the areas of medical education, clinical care, and research. Major responsibilities include: EM faculty development and oversight, and ED operations. This position offers an academic affiliation with the University of California Irvine as well as the benefits of being a partner with CEP America. Apply online today at info.cep.com/kaweah. For more information, please contact Patti Egan at eganp@medamerica.com or (510) 350-2789, or Lori Winston, MD at loriwinston@cep.com.

TEXAS, Austin: DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH EDUCATION. Join the faculty at UT Southwestern-Austin as Director of Research Education for new EM Residency program. This is primarily a mentorship position for faculty and residents, so an enthusiasm for teaching and track record in education are a must. Candidates should be ABEM/ABOEM certified with a minimum 5 years GME teaching and research experience. Candidates should have a minimum of one peer reviewed publication per year, averaged over the last 5 years, and editorial experience (manuscript reviewer, abstract reviewer, editorial board). Experience in teaching grant writing a plus. Work at University Medical Center Brackenridge, an urban teaching hospital and Level 1 Trauma Center. Interested candidates may send CV confidentially to Lisa Morgan (lisa@edddocs.com).
