Dear Co Editors-in-Chief,

Thank you very much for giving us the possibility to further revise our manuscript (SSM-D-17-03102R1), entitled "Grandparents and Children's Stunting in sub-Saharan Africa".

We went through the whole manuscript and adjusted causal formulations in line with the comment of reviewer 1. We have also improved the explanation for the finding that girls are relatively better off with regard to stunting in households with a co-residing grandfather.

Besides these adjustments, we have made some other small changes throughout the document to improve the text and the English writing.

We hope that the improved manuscript is now acceptable for publication in SSM.

Kind regards,
