This is a PDF file of an unedited manuscript that has been accepted for publication. As a service to our customers we are providing this early version of the manuscript. The manuscript will undergo copyediting, typesetting, and review of the resulting proof before it is published in its final form. Please note that during the production process errors may be discovered which could affect the content, and all legal disclaimers that apply to the journal pertain.

Highlights

- We contribute to the research on how retail investors value corporate bonds
- Less familiar firms carry significant risk premia also in debt financing
- Firms' general recognition and local visibility reduce credit spreads significantly
- Our results suggest heuristic decision behaviour among retail investors
