

Author's Accepted Manuscript

Continuous professional development of Liberia's midwifery workforce- a coordinated multi-stakeholder approach

Michaela Michel-Schuldt, Matilda Billy Dayon, Robin Toft Klar, Marion Subah, E. Lincoln, Cecelia Flomo-Kpangbala, Raphaël Broniatowski

PII: S0266-6138(18)30066-4
DOI: <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.midw.2018.02.023>
Reference: YMIDW2211

To appear in: Midwifery

Received date: 13 December 2017
Revised date: 25 February 2018
Accepted date: 28 February 2018

Cite this article as: Michaela Michel-Schuldt, Matilda Billy Dayon, Robin Toft Klar, Marion Subah, E. Lincoln, Cecelia Flomo-Kpangbala and Raphaël Broniatowski, Continuous professional development of Liberia's midwifery workforce- a coordinated multi-stakeholder approach, Midwifery, <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.midw.2018.02.023>

This is a PDF file of an unedited manuscript that has been accepted for publication. As a service to our customers we are providing this early version of the manuscript. The manuscript will undergo copyediting, typesetting, and review of the resulting galley proof before it is published in its final citable form. Please note that during the production process errors may be discovered which could affect the content, and all legal disclaimers that apply to the journal pertain.

Continuous professional development of Liberia's midwifery workforce- a coordinated multi-stakeholder approach

Michel-Schuldt, Michaela, CM, MSc^{a*}, Billy Dayon, Matilda, CM^b, Toft Klar, Robin, DNSc, RN^c, Subah, Marion, CNM, FWACN^d, Lincoln, E., CM^e, Flomo-Kpangbala, Cecelia, RN, BSc, MPH, MPH-ICHD^f, Broniatowski, Raphaël, MPH^g

^aMinistry of Health Liberia and EPOS Health Management

^bMinistry of Health Liberia

^cNYU Meyers College of Nursing

^dJhpiego Liberia

^eUnited Nations Population Fund Liberia

^fLiberian Board for Nursing and Midwifery

^gEPOS Health Management

m.michel-schuldt@email.de matildabillydayon@gmail.com

rtk3@nyu.edu

Marion.Subah@jhpigo.org

lincoln@unfpa.org

ceceliakf1@yahoo.com

Raphael.Broniatowski@epos.de

Corresponding author: Michaela Michel-Schuldt, CM, MSc, Ministry of Health and Social Welfare Liberia and EPOS Health Management; address: Department of Planning, Ministry of Health, Congo Town, Monrovia, Liberia, phone: +231 778021297

Background

While progress has been made in the reduction of child mortality, the maternal mortality ratio remains very high, with an estimated 1,072 deaths per 100,000 live births reported,

Download English Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/en/article/7523944>

Download Persian Version:

<https://daneshyari.com/article/7523944>

Daneshyari.com