*I would like to express my appreciation to two anonymous referees, and the following people for their helpful comments: Izumi Yokoyama, Patrik Kline, Ayako Kondo, Keisuke Kawata, Hideo Owan, Takahiro Itoh, Machiko Osawa, Edward Lazear, Todd Sorensen, David Nemark, Ami Glazer, Damon Clerk, Micael Castanheira, and Daiji Kawaguchi. In addition, I would like to thank the participants of the Tokyo Labor Economics Workshop, RIETI workshop, 2016 Asian Meeting of Econometric Society, IZA brown-bag seminar, 2016 Fall Meeting of the JEA, 2017 Asian Conference on Microeconomics and Econometrics, Inatigual Meeting of AASLE, UC-Irvine seminar, 3rd Belgian-Japanese Public Finance Workshop at CORE (Université catholique de Louvain), and the 29th EALE Annual Conference. Permission for the use of micro data from the Basic Survey on Wage Structure was given by the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour, and Welfare. This research was conducted as part of the “transformation of the Japanese labor market: toward a labor market for all” project undertaken at the Research Institute of Economy, Trade and Industry, and was supported by the Japan Center for Economic Research and by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (Grants-in-Aid for Scientific Research (C) #16K03711, and the Fund for the Promotion of Joint International Research #15KK0097). Editorial assistance was provided by Philip MacLellan.
