Dear Colleagues!

Russian and Polish scientists jointly invite you to take part at International Starch Convention (ISC). ISC are organizing annually in even years in Cracow and in odd years in Moscow.

XIII International Starch Convention to be held in Russia, Moscow, 21–23 June, 2005.

The subject of the Convention covers starch and other polysaccharides:

- Structure,
- Analysis,
- Reactivity,
- Modifications by physical, chemical and enzymatic methods,
- Production and technology.

CONVENTION VENUE

Institute of Biochemical Physics RAS, 4, Kosygin Street, Moscow.

LOCATION:

The Conference will be held in Moscow, in Institute of Biochemical Physics RAS.
